Please be aware you'll need some L shaped brackets to attach to the car and also it has a little wear and tear from use over the years.

I bought this for £400 and im asking for £350ono collected from Essex or extra posted depending on your location.

It's funny, I really can't decide if this is totally awesome or hideous? It's an odd feeling, but best of luck selling this mate, Karma click for the uniqueness of this piece!
