We now have an off topic area: <http://www.mr2.ie/index.php/mr2-forum/16-off-topic>

Would like a spirited driving chronicles area but that term is used on a few .uk sites. Shouldn't we have the Irish version?

Something with the word vehicle - but maybe spelt as the Garda would say it "veh-hicle" ?

How about the
"Views From A Side Window"
Or
"Lift Off, Oh Dear"
Or
"Steer Into It"

Edit: they are more suited to the driving tales than an off topic section though.
