

Terenure Car Show -6th July 2014

Posted by Spidey - 2014/03/31 12:44

It's that time of year again for one of the best car shows of the year.

This thread is to generate and keep track of people attending. I'd ask that to whoever posts - could they keep the list of people at the end of their post.

Last year was excellent and a link below with some pics for anyone who hasn't been to it. (pics from around page 6)

<http://www.mr2.ie/mr2-forum/5-irish-events/55372-terenure-car-show-7th-july-2013>

Cost for the show is €10 per person (this covers a passenger :)). We may be able to get a marquee again this year - will confirm as soon as we find out. Last two years, we got a great deal and it was only €180 - this included putting it up the day before, the marquee insured and taking it down. IF we are able to get it again, the cost will be shared e.g. it is €10 anyway - if we get 10 people going, then it is $180/10 = 18$ per head for the marquee. So, 10 for show + 18 = 28 each. Obviously if we have more than 10, the cost goes down and vice versa. The "walking" (anyone got pics of this from last year ?) Marquee really made it last year

It's a bit more than usual that people pay for shows but anyone who has been will tell you it is really worth it :)

I'd like to get forms and payment for the show asap. If people can't get to this meet, they can send in their own forms. Details are below - link to the form is about half way down the page.

If you are sending in your own form, post to this thread or pm me and let me know you have done this. Also, when filling in the form, please put down "MR2 Drivers". This is solely a forum and we are not in any way a club.

<http://www.irishjagclub.ie/terenure-car-show/>

As usual, we'll organise food beverages etc as it gets nearer the show

Apologies folks - busy at home and work and haven't been on much. Also missed last few C&C's.

Smurfster is able to get the Marquee again at a great price of €180. So, i think to make it a runner, we need min 10 people ? That would mean $180/10 = 18$ for the marquee and 10 for the show entry. So, is everyone on the list happy with 28 per head ?

This is assuming we get at two more. Obviously, if we get more than two, the price per head goes down.

I am afraid i am going to be away for C&C in June as well. Can someone attend and collect the 28 per head ?

For those not in Dublin, can they organise maybe paypal ? I need copies of forms. Can be downloaded from

No prob :) Just checking - are you still coming in on the MR2.ie "stand" / marquee / bbq etc ? If so, we need to pay for that in advance, as Smurfster has to book and pay for it.

Just to be clear - if anyone just wants to go to the show, it's just the €10 (by a certain date and either 15 or 20 on the day). To go on the MR2 Drivers area etc, it's 10 for show and 18 (down to 15 if all 12 people on below list go) if you want to put your car in the area, avail of marquee, bbq.

Option 1 : €10 = park in "general" area. No marquee, no bbq : (

Option 2 : €10 + 15/18 = 25/28 (25 if we get 12 people) = park in MR2 Drivers area, marquee, bbq

C'mon lads and ladies - few more people and we'll get cost per person down more :)

Can people either get along to the Cars & Coffee this weekend or else get along to the Mini-Meet in McD's Blanch.

If i can't collect the cash for the Marquee by June 12th, we will not be going ahead with it. Smurfster is organising it for us and getting a great deal on it. So, want to have the cash in advance so that he doesn't get stung by people not turning up.

Japohara wrote:

The quick answer is - this week.

the more complicated answer follows ...

The marquee is 180 - so, if we get 10, then 18 quid each. The marquee really makes it - ask anyone who has been there for both the sunny years and the rsiny ones !

The show itself is 10 euro a head if you get entry in before 16th. I'm trying to get people in by 12th, as I need to get everything sent in one envelope.

so, you could pay the 18 for the marquee now and then

- 1) ride shotgun with someone else if your car isn't ready
- 2) pay the 20 entry on the day if your car is ready

It's great craic being on the mr2 stand and the selection of other cars on show are just amazing

Okay, we have the 10 people/cars. So, the marquee is a go :))

Over the next few weeks, we'll have a few posts and we'll organise the usual bits and pieces to bring along. For anyone new to this, all we do is that each person brings along a few items e.g. 1 person might bring a few sausages and burgers, someone might bring tea, coffee etc. The idea is that no-one would be spending more than 3-4 euros each.

Okay, we're down to 9. Marquee is 180 euros (this is already a great deal / mates rates). It was 18 per person based on 10 people but with only 9 now, the cost is gone up to 20 euros per person.

Need to know asap if everyone is okay to put in the extra 2 euros per person ?

Redmk1 - i didn't realise you gave me 60 euros for yourself and mr2wanabe. So, if you are okay to give the 2 x 2 euros, then i already have it - if you know what i mean.

if EVERYONE isn't okay to do that, then we'll have to cancel the Marquee and i'll just refund everyone the already paid 18 euros. This will not affect the show entry - we will still have a club stand (aka piece of grass!)

It might just be safer to go without the marquee this year? If anyone else has to drop out then it will get very expensive for everyone else! I only say that as I currently have real life issues that might rear their ugly head :(

But if everyone else is still happy to go with it then so am I

No need for that :nono:

JapOHara jumped in to make 10 but then we had another unfortunate dropout :(So, we went up to 10 and back down to 9.

But, i think everyone is okay to pay the 2 quid extra on the day.

Anyone else interested in going along ? Fantastic show - one of the best.

The little dilemma we have is that the money for the show and the forms needs to be sent tomorrow (they have to be in BY Friday). It's €10 if it is in by Friday and €20 if you pay on the day. But, if you want me to get it in by Friday, you need to get the money to me TODAY.

The price of the marquee is 180 - so, it obviously varies based on the number of people. At the moment, i have $18 * 9 = 162$. And we'll get 2 quid from the 9 people on the day to make up the 180.

So, what i am saying is - if someone wanted to go and hadn't got the full cash now, they can get the 10 quid and the form in today and then pay the other 18 on the day.

The drama continues but we've been rescued by TurboD this time !

He's going to help out and still pay 18 euros (very fair of him seeing as he won't have his car there). But, we'll put all the 18 euros toward the marquee. So, cost stays at 18 per person (10 * 18)- no extra 2 euros per person required! And to get into the show, he'll meet us beforehand and ride shotgun with someone.

I just sent payment for the show this evening and i'm posting entries tomorrow. So, we're 100% sorted now ! :pray:

If you can get the form and paypal over to me today, we'll be able to fit you in. But, it has to be in today, because i posted all the other forms yesterday. If you can get me yours this morning, it'd be ideal because i can get to the post office at lunchtime today.

I'll pm you my paypal.

Okay, folks - in about a week or so, they'll start to send out your Entry numbers to the addresses you provided on the forms. Keep these as you need them to get in on the day !

Now on to the easier part to organise - food :)

We're looking for everyone to put their name down for something - not to exceed for than 3 or 4 euros max !

The reason for putting down what you are going to get is so that everyone doesn't turn up with burgers and no-one will have buns etc !!!!

Aside from food, throw your name down if you've gas bbq's foldable tables, cups, plates, coke etc. Coolbox would be great if anyone has one

Here's a list of the essentials - burgers, sausages, buns, hot dog buns, tea/coffee, sugar, milk, ketchup, mayonnaise, cheese slices, soft drinks, paper plates, cups, plastic knives/forks. Anything after that like biscuits, crisps etc are a bonus

Always a good idea to bring your own mug !

1. Spidey - gas single plate bbq, bbq utensils, 2 x 2L coke, bag of cocktail sausages, bunting, small table, MR2 Drivers Banner
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.

Show opens to public around 11ish. So, we usually meet at the Spawell carpark around 9:15, drive down about 9:30, stopping off for breakfast rolls etc in Terenure, getting down about 10 and then setting up, cleaning cars etc

Between us, we've made edible burgers / hotdogs the last few years with no reported deaths, food poisoning !

The bbq might be a better option, as there's no power for a fridge unless someone had a generator

There is a car park for those people with cars who arrive on the day and who are not on a "stand". I assume there is no reason why you can't leave it there. There are a lot of cars there which would be trailered.

I'll shoot them an email and let you know

They came back to me and said it is just inside the gate in Car Park 3 - she said "along the Long back wall". I'm sure you'll see the other trailers when you get in. Not sure if you saw the sheet that was sent out but trailers need to be out of the Show area by 11am at latest.

Plan at the moment is to meet at the Spawell car park at about 9:15. We'll leave there around 9:30 and quick stop in shops to get breakfast rolls, coffee etc and on to the show by say 10.

Anyone who is not sure of directions etc, pm me for my mobile number
