

Garage Clean Up ... FREE PARTS

Posted by Japohara - 2014/04/18 10:42

I have to clean up the garage ... That carbon shell breaks my heart everytime i see it and it has to go now ....

There are loads of bits and bobs all over the place just ask and you will recieve

This will work on a first come first served basis ...

I am keeping anything I can break or use on the track car for spares ... Body panels, Hubs, Etc ..

All other parts are FREE .... yes FREE to club members

I have the interior trim from 2 cars ... seats are gone ...

As the price of the parts are so low I will not be driving around the country to deliver them ...

Have you still got a leather interior ?

I'm not paid till the end of the month and wanna get the brakes sorted first but please don't throw out anything leather - doorcards, seats, ect... I will pick em up at some stage I might be able to get a buddy of mine who lives in Dublin to call up to ya an take em away :)

Nice one too for the offer ;)

Hi,

Got my first 2 today (20 years waiting was long enough!). She is not perfect but to me the drive home was the best I have had in years. Would you have handbrake cover, gear gator cover, electric Ariel motor and it has double din tape and cd if you had original unit mine not working. I'm only in Virginia so could collect anytime.

Cheers

Sorry for the late reply

All seats are gone ...

There are 3 sets of door cards ...I think one of them is leather

Handbrake gator and gear stick gator are there ... Elec ariel is broken and all had after market radios ...

To quote a teenager somewhere .....

effort ...

God knows when I will get the time to pull them out ...

the whole idea of making the stuff free was so I didn't have to put in any effort at all ....

If people want stuff come and get it ... I really don't have enough hours in my day ...

you are welcome to them but I just don't have the time or interest to go pulling stuff apart for an ac switch

Good evening bro,

Looking for a few odd bits,

The little plastic surround on the inside door handle, passengers side.

An ashtray.

The small metal bracket, that holds the fog lamp steady, bolts on with the front crossmember, passengers side.

I'd obviously pay you for them and cover postage if you had them.

Thanks,

Dec

The whole thing of the parts being free is because I dont have the time to be taking the car apart or even rebuilding it ...

Parts are COLLECTION ONLY

Sorry lads if I had the time to be taking the parts off the Car I wouldnt be breaking it I would be rebuilding it ..

Do you have any dash panels? i need the 2/3 parts that are right of the steering wheel/ignition barrel!
also do you have any speedos lying around? i just need the clear plastic cover from a speedo. Collection in the next week or two is not a problem! cheers

Hi, just got my first mr2. It's looking a little sorry inside so any free bits would be fantastic. Would tomorrow evening be too late to get to you before it all goes to the heap.
I'd happily spend the evening sifting through your shed for anything I can use :)
Cheers

Will the car still be around on the weekend? i dont have a chance to get out until then. Also its dashboard panels im after and the clear plastic cover for the speedo. Going from your previous posts i presume i will need to remove anything needed myself. As the dash is a little awkward i may have to remove a good bit of it to get to the bits i need if thats ok?
