

Wanted MR2 turbo!

Hi guys,

Summers here and all being well we'll get good weather to enjoy it..

Which has put me in the mind for an MR2 turbo

I've already got an NA but it'll be for sale shortly

I'm looking for a clean rev4 or rev5 mr2 turbo and have a budget of up to £4000 depending on the equivalent in euros as I don't mind going down south for one.

I know they are rare but I seen a white rev5 recently on donedeal.

If anyone is thinking of selling or is interested in selling either message me here or PM me :) tell your friends if they have one ;)

Thanks man, sounds good but I'm not in a rush at the minute so I'm going to wait and see if a rev4 or 5 I like comes up :)

But in future if I have no luck who knows.

Bump, sold my 2 and now on the lookout for a new car.

Still after a rev4-5 turbo among different cars.

So if anyone has one let me know

:)

I didn't know someone had a trd rep around here! Have you a thread or anywhere i could see pictures dmac?

Although i mainly am looking for a rev4-5 but who knows could be interested.

That one on donedeal the only thing putting me off is mileage but apart from that, looks a good one :)

this one has been on before, it's an early rev3 on a 93 plate, so no strict emissions test. Looks to be nice and clean
