

Octane Track Day 17 Next Event

Posted by Japohara - 2013/07/28 23:26

Great news lads ... Next Track day ran by Octane Track Days will be the 25th October ...So plenty of time to get ready ...

Got92tubby you should have a car sorted by then and maybe Spla300 will have one done also ...

I have managed to convince the kitchen Commander to allow me to go to this one even though we are getting married on the 31st of October .. BTW all are welcome to the after party ... This is my stag party so I would like to make it a great day filled with MR2's and the smell of burning rubber, brake pads and clutches

So far we have

1. Japohara
2. Froggy (Roadstone Sponsored Celica)
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.

Epic day ... Lost control of the car and hit the barrier ... A few scrapes on the bodykit and knocked the front bumper loose ... All Good ... Just Drive Harder ...

Spla300 and Tsporter seemed to be having great fun on track here are some pics for you guys ... also there is 18GB of video to be edited ...

Also we have a few snap shots from the Go Pros on the back bumper of my car

I had an ITCC Corrado all over my back bumper at about 2 inches for a lap or so

Here I am spinning about to crash

That is awesome! Fair play to him, a lot of effort went into that!

Nice considerate parking after the bump too! Lol
