

Insurance

Posted by dazzler mk2 - 2020/03/26 13:04

Hi lads ,

Anyone know any insurance companies
Who might Take on a 19yr old as a classic ,
A lot seemed to have changed from 20 to 25 yrs for the classic policy

Cheers !

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Bommie - 2020/03/26 20:06

Hi dazzler, I had a very quick look online and most are saying 20 years plus. A broker will probably be your best best bet is think.

If you have any luck be sure to fill us in!

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by dazzler mk2 - 2020/03/26 20:27

Thanks bonnie,

I'll keep you posted

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Rex Banner - 2020/03/28 20:31

I've a friend with a 15 year classic with Autoline.

MR2 MK3

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Quandry - 2020/03/31 14:20

Give First Ireland a ring

<https://www.firstireland.ie/>

I have an MR2 on a classic policy with them

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Rex Banner - 2020/03/31 16:32

@Quandry

What sort of region is the cost per year.
Carol Nash is about 225e for me

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Bommie - 2020/03/31 19:31

Nice to see there's still at least 2 options out there!

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Quandry - 2020/04/01 09:38

I think mine was about 240eur or thereabouts.

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by dazzler mk2 - 2020/04/01 14:03

Thanks bonnie,

I'll keep you posted

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by dazzler mk2 - 2020/04/02 20:36

Thanks lads

I'll give them a call tomorrow,
My insurance went from €225 for a 25yr old car
To €1299 for a 19yr old ,

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by dazzler mk2 - 2020/04/05 18:10

Does carol nash insure in the south ?
Tried to get a quote on line and wouldn't
Accept my reg , thought it might only
Be for uk because the excess was in sterling .

=====

Re: Insurance

Posted by Rex Banner - 2020/04/27 14:18

They definitely do the Republic, but I ha to call them myself.
They don't have great online systems. But they have a good office in Dublin

1800 818 751

=====