

Mk3 MR2

Posted by corkmr2 - 2021/02/11 10:58

Is there anyone active on the forum anymore?! Looking for advice on the MK3...

This came up for sale near me and I'm thinking of going to look at it:

Never had a mk3 before so not too sure what to look for in them?

Appreciate any help

I can't see the ad.

I don't have any experience with the Mk3 MR2, but I do remember reading that the automatics can give trouble.

It was sold before I got a chance to look at it unfortunately. Thanks for the reply anyway.
